

DESIGN YOUR FUTURE:
INSTITUTE OF INTERIOR DESIGN HOLDS OPEN HOUSE

Estero, Fla. (May 19, 2009) – The faculty and staff at the Institute of Interior Design welcome all those who are interested in the field of interior design to attend an open house on Thursday, June 4. Come learn more about a possible future in the industry of interior design.

The open house is free to the public and offers participants a chance to view students' work, take a tour, hear about the industry firsthand from guest speaker Pam Durkin, President Elect of the South Florida Chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers, learn about your future in design during the informational session and find out more about financial aid options, such as the $7,000 Smart Choices High School Scholarship, for those who qualify.

Take the next step and start the summer off right, come discover if the Institute of Interior Design is the right college for you. The Institute of Interior Design has a skilled team of professionals and tailored diploma and degree programs that are suited to meet the needs of the industry. Learn more about the bachelor degree program in Interior Design, the associate degree program in Interior Design and Decorating, or the diploma program in Kitchen and Bath design, which is designed with NKBA (National Kitchen and Bath Association) guidelines and approved by the NKBA as a supported school.

The open house will be held on Thursday, June 4 from 4:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the Institute of Interior Design, located within the beautifully appointed International Design Center at 10800 Corkscrew Road, Suite 280, in Estero, Fla. Students of the Institute of Interior Design are in direct contact with professional designers and the unparalleled resources that the International Design Center has to offer.

Reservations are required and all are encouraged to attend. To reserve your space, please call Nancy Ashley at 239-221-7249 or email nashley@swfc.edu today.

The Institute of Interior Design is an accredited private, nonprofit institution located within the International Design Center in Estero, Fla.
