

Personnel Announcement:
DIANNE BOMMARITO JOINS SWFC AS THE NEW BURSAR

Fort Myers, Fla., (June 30, 2009) – Dianne Bommarito recently joined Southwest Florida College as its Bursar.

“My goal is to anticipate customer needs and provide the services necessary to meet those needs, while ensuring the efficiency and integrity of the Bursar’s Office,” Bommarito said.

Bommarito is a experienced administrator with strong skills in finance, planning and budgets, as well as project and process management developed throughout her career at several organizations, including J.C. Penney, AC Delco Marketing and General Motors.

She has a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Michigan and a master’s degree in administration from Central Michigan University. She also has earned and maintained her certification as a Project Management Professional (PMP).

“Although I’m still learning the responsibilities and regulatory requirements for my new position, I am very excited about this opportunity and believe my background will help provide a smooth transition for the organization and campus community,” she said.

Bommarito recently relocated from Michigan to Ft. Myers, but says she was a frequent visitor to the Ft. Myers area for many years. She is married to Phillip and they have two sons, Timothy and Anthony. She enjoys golf, reading and walking on Southwest Florida beaches.
